

Quality Assurance policy

As detailed in the scope, Ansell Microgard Ltd is engaged in the business of the design, manufacture and supply of chemical protective apparel and respiratory protective devices.

The purpose of this policy is to confirm our commitment to meeting the quality standards expected by published standards and specifications, customer requirements and in-house specifications.

Our quality system is based on the requirements of ISO 9001:2015.

We are committed to:

- a) Use the Quality Management System as a tool in achieving best practice across the organisation;
- b) Ensure continuous improvement;
- c) Determine Quality objectives and review them annually.

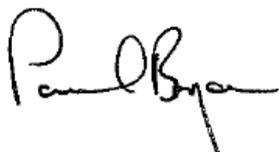

To implement this policy, we shall focus on the needs of our business with particular reference to consistently meeting our customers' requirements and statutory obligations. Our quality management system will provide mechanisms for detecting system shortfalls and for stimulating process improvements.

BSIF Registered Safety Supplier scheme: the company undertakes to only supply safety equipment that fully complies with the standards and regulations relating to those products. Where appropriate, this company will maintain technical files (fully updated) to ensure appropriate information can be supplied upon request. Where products are sourced from third parties that hold the technical files, this company will request confirmation of those approvals and take the necessary action to confirm the validity of these approvals held by that third party in respect of the products being sourced

Ansell Microgard will adopt procedures and disciplines to ensure that:

- a) The system is effectively implemented by undertaking relevant skills training, and conducting appropriate quality awareness training;
- b) Responsibilities for quality are established by communicating these responsibilities clearly to all employees;
- c) The policy and procedures continue to be appropriate by initiating regular reviews to check its effectiveness and ongoing relevance, and / or
- d) The company regularly review the needs and expectations of our customers and initiate continuous improvement activities to meet these expectations.
